

We'll return to the site of our twice-yearly retreats for a whole weekend to pray and look into God's word together.

The weekend will consist of prayer, times of worship in song, and group study of God's word. We'll have time for individual private prayer, prayer in small groups, and corporate prayer with our whole group. (And we'll have time to hang out with each other and enjoy fellowship too.)

In addition to letting the word of God guide us in our prayers, we will seek the Lord for the issues in our personal lives, as well as family and our social contexts, the wider world, and whatever else the Spirit leads us to ask for. Come ready for a focused time of actively pursuing God.

Please join us to experience the blessing of Christian community centered around God's presence and word.

The weekend will take place at the Camp at Old Mill in Brandamore, PA (see back for directions and camp contact info).

Registration forms are also available to download at youngadults.ccphilly.org.

// What to Bring

Necessary Items:

- Bible, notebook, & pen or pencil
- Sleeping bag/Bedding
- Personal hygiene items
- Wash cloth and towels
- An alarm clock and flashlight are suggested.
- As usual, please think about the electronic devices you bring.

Most likely, you will get the most out of your time in the word if you have a minimal amount of distractions around. Many people find it very helpful to "detox" off their technology (even phones!) while away on weekends like this. Food for thought and prayer...

// Times

If you're leaving with us from church, meet on Friday, Oct. 5 at 3:45 pm in the Auditorium (Where we meet on Monday Nights). There will be no dinner served Friday night. Eat on your way up! The van leaves at 4:00 p.m. If you're meeting us at the camp, figure on the first meeting starting somewhere around 7:30. The weekend will finish up around lunch time on Sunday, October 7.
