

This year we'll gather at the Calvary's prayer house in White Haven, PA.

The weekend will consist of prayer, times of worship in song, and group study of God's word. We'll also seek to mix it up--time for individual private prayer and reflection, prayer and discussion in small groups, and corporate prayer and study with our whole group.

(And we'll have plenty of time to hang out with each other and enjoy fellowship too.)

Please join us to experience the blessing of Christian community centered around God's presence and word.

(see other page for directions).

// What to Bring

Necessary Items:

- Bible, notebook, & pen or pencil
- Sleeping bag/mattress if sleeping in basement
- Personal hygiene items, Pillow if you don't like fat pillows
- Outdoor chair if you want to sit on the deck
- An alarm clock and flashlight are suggested but not needed.
- As usual, please think about the electronic devices you bring. Most likely, you will get the most out of your time in the word if you have a minimal amount of distractions around. Many people find it very helpful to "detox" off their technology (even phones!) while away on weekends like this. Food for thought and prayer...

// Times

If you're leaving with us from church, meet on Friday, Oct 3 at 2:45 pm at the Handicapped entrance on the Philmont Ave. side of the church building. IF WE HAVE VAN SPACE: The van leaves at 3:00 p.m, and bring money or food for dinner Friday night. Remember THERE IS NO DINNER SERVED FRIDAY NIGHT. If you're meeting us at the house, figure on the first meeting starting somewhere around 7:30.
